Benefit in terms of learning/Skill/Knowledge Obtained:

Knowledge about how can startups protect their Intellectual Property using their IPR.

Objective :

1. It helps create a sustainable and defensible differentiator for the startup.
2. To encourage the creativity of the human mind for the benefit of all and to ensure that the benefits arising from exploiting a creation benefit the creator.
3. Intellectual property (IP) rights serve the important purpose of ensuring that creators will be recognized for their efforts and protected from infringement.
4. IPR provide certain exclusive rights to the inventors or creators of that property, in order to enable them to reap commercial benefits from their creative efforts or reputation.

Outcomes:

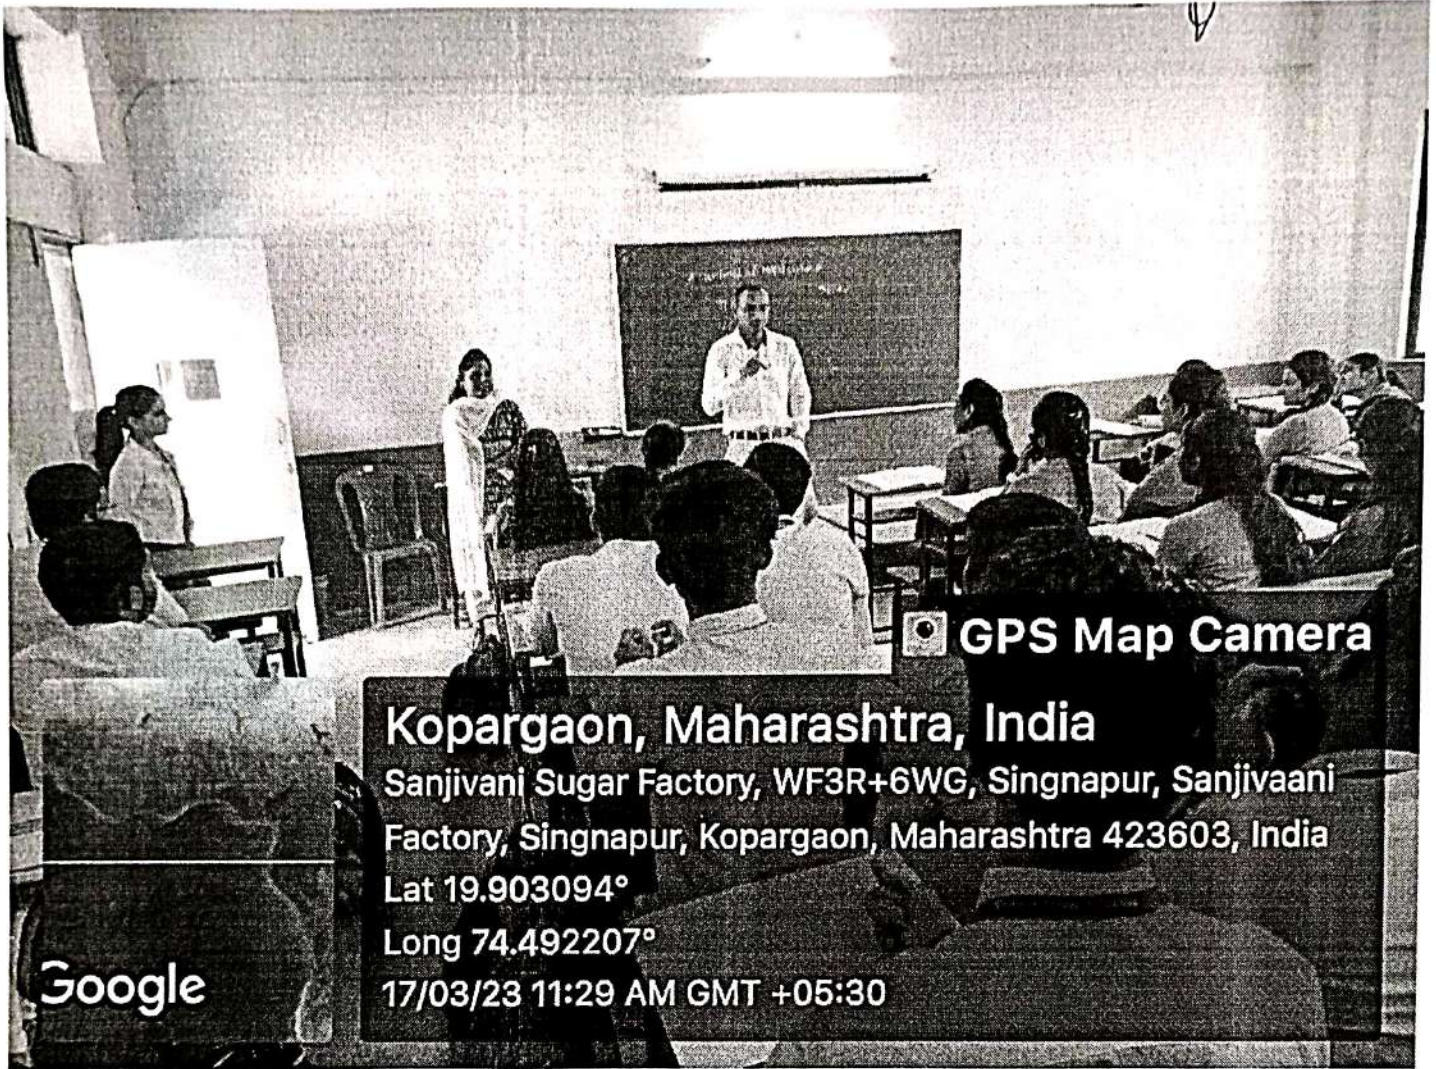

1. Deterring other companies from unfairly profiting off your material.
2. Presumption of ownership
3. Protection from infringement suits.
4. The key ingredient to competitive advantage.
5. Security and investor appeal.

Conclusion:

Intellectual property rights are monopoly rights that grant their holders the temporary privilege for the exclusive exploitation of the income rights from cultural expressions and inventions.
